Argh!

OINK GOES ANIMAL CRACKERS!

The Story Behind The Cover!

I'm determined to make this a nice comic! I've persuaded that Pigg to put my Percy and I on the cover of this "animals" issue!

Here you are Mrs. Lighthouse! 40p to have your picture taken!

I didn't tell her that I want a few other things on the cover as well!

Come on, you lot!

Smile when the light flashes, Percy... Erk! What's that?

Smile, everybody!

Wah! You're crushing my Percy!

MISTER BIG NOSE

THAT'S SOMETHING YOU DON'T SEE OFTEN. A MAN WITH A PIG'S HEAD!

HOW DARE YOU! THAT'S NOT WHAT I AM AT ALL, MISTER BIG NOSE!

WHAT ARE YOU, THEN?

I'M A HUGE, UGLY BUDGIE THAT LIKES DRESSING IN SMART SUITS!

By Marc Riley

Rupert the Pear

EPISODE
No. 199,023

1. One day, Cecil the creepy Chihuahua came to Rupert's window. 'Will you help me with my stall at the church fete, please, Rupert?' asked Cecil.

2. 'Of course,' chuckled Rupert, coming out to meet Cecil. 'I expect you want me to organise the tombola for you?'

3. 'I bet you want me to take charge of the whole event' continued Rupert. 'Not exactly', said Cecil, letting an anvil fall from a nearby tree onto Rupert's head. Imagine Rupert's surprise!

4. Mister Vole the Vicar praised Cecil's stall at the fete. 'I got these lovely items from Rupert,' said Cecil. 'What a good boy he is,' said the Vicar. 'It's a shame he seems to have dis-a-pear-ed recently.'

Hamantha Fox says:

MICHAEL PORKINSON MEETS

★★★★UNCLE PIGG★★★★

Roving reporter Michael Parkinson was granted the immense honour of an audience with the biggest name in comics today UNCLE PIGG!

M: Er ... hello, your majesty ...
UP: Stop grovelling by the door and come in, Parkinson! Your appearance is a disgrace! Look at you ... clean shirt, neat tie, polished shoes ... that's not a proper image for a pig to present! Here, I'll tip a bucket of st over you!

M: Glaarf!

UP: That's better. Now, let's get on with the interview. Ask me a question.

M: Er, how ...?

UP: How did I first get the idea for 'OINK'? Well, even as a piglet, I realised I had a destiny! A mission to transform British comics, to bring fun and laughter to pig-lovers everywhere, and to make pots of money.

M: Er, how ...?

UP: How do I do it? Easy! I use the funniest writers and artists, and reward them well. Why, just last week I tossed J.T. Dogg an extra bone for his work on the 'Streethogs'.

M: How, er ...

UP: How do I answer critics like Mary Lighthouse, who says that 'OINK' is too rude and cheeky? Well, I'm very calm and reasonable about it ... I show her the letters from readers who say I've brightened up their lives. If that doesn't work, I just wiggle my bottom at her and make rude noises. Any more questions?

M: Er, how ... how ... much am I getting paid for this article?

UP: Are you mad? YOU'RE paying ME for the privilege of talking to me! I charge £50 a minute, so that comes to (Sounds of Uncle Pigg's pocket calculator working, and Parkinson fainting and falling to the floor).

Problems answered by
UNCLE PIGG

At scouts they call me "Juggers", short for "Juggernaut", because I've got a big fat bottom. I hate being called it. What should I do?

— Adam McGhie, Kent

You're getting a bum deal. Try and put this problem behind you. If that fails, squash your pals' sarcasm - sit on them!

I trump in class, and sometimes it is so bad we have to get out of the classroom. Please help.

— James Williams, Lincoln

No. If you can't open the classroom door yourself, I'm not going to do it for you.

Dear Uncle Pigg,
Is it true that your staff make up some of these letters?

A. Nonimus

How dare you say that! You're sacked! — Uncle Pigg.

TIP-TOP TIPS!

People have been asking me about grasshoppers – about their diets, how many heads do they have, do they really hop grass, do they sleep, do they read comics, how many grasshoppers would it take to fill the Albert Hall, and so on? And to be quite honest I've no idea.

Fleas can be a nuisance at this time of year. The best way I know to get rid of pesky fleas is to sell your cat and dog.

Canaries are going cheep at the moment, and you can always get them on higher perches.

If your ant-eater won't eat ants, try him with a few uncles. Failing that, a juicy grandparent might bring his appetite back.

A tip for people who like to race pigeons – let them give you a head start, because they're very fast.

TWEE TALES PRESENT - THE WONDERFUL WILDLIFE OF WATERY DOWN

1. Bigbot the rabbit poked his head out of his hole one morning to find a large bull near his warren.

2. Along came Jeremy the clever fox. "Where did that bull come from?" asked Jeremy. "I don't know. And I don't know why it's standing so still," replied Bigbot.

3. "I do believe it's made of plastic," said Jeremy. "And it appears to have a label attached." "It's ticking!" gasped Bigbot.

continued over

4. Suddenly, the bull exploded!

5. Along came Jolly Pumper, the dear little rabbit whose japes made life on Watery Down such fun. He called down into the crater where Jeremy and Bigbot lay dazed. "What did you think of my little joke?"

6.

It was a-bomb-in-a-bull!
